Fine Bone China Plates Line AF1760

AF1760 is a collection designed for those who view cooking as a creative expression and a profession. For those who recognize the value of objects that combine tradition and innovation, aesthetics and functionality, presence and discretion.

Each piece is born from a meticulous design process, where materials, shapes, and details are calibrated to meet the needs of professional kitchens. The result is a reliable and elegant line, designed to withstand the intense pace of service without sacrificing style.

The pure white of Fine Bone China offers a bright, neutral surface, ideal for enhancing any creation. The essential shapes, balanced proportions, and smooth surfaces create a collection that naturally accompanies the chef's gestures, enhancing the colors, volumes, and textures of contemporary cuisine.
