Discover the practicality of our maxi stainless steel ladle: an essential accessory for lovers of professional cooking. Thanks to its sturdiness and resistance, the result of a one-piece structure in Aisi-304 steel, it is perfect for intensive use and offers great durability over time. The handle, 23.5cm long, enriches the object with additional functionality: the capacity of the ladle (200 cl) is engraved on the surface and the curved terminal allows it to be easily hung. The maxi ladle meets the needs of any chef, allowing you to work every day in complete tranquility and safety.
