SOLUZIONI FOODSERVICE

Between history and culture, from Prohibition to avant-garde exotic blends, Mixology was born, the art of mixing where nothing is left to chance.

Luigi Bormioli embarks on this new adventure with a collection of high quality Barware & Cocktail making equipment created in collaboration with Yuri Gelmini, Head Barman of the Surfer's Den in Milan and Futurist Mixologist. The study and research of new elements, expert hands who know how to mix and calibrate new flavors, everything is left to the taste and imagination of the Futurist Mixologist Yuri Gelmini, and leads to forms of creativity and aesthetic expression thanks to both technical devices and the his ability resulting from study and experience in this field.
